

Where you can find us

The senior citizens`office (office for elderly people) is situated in the city hall in Fürth at the bus station Königstraße.

contact

Senior citizens` representative Elke Übelacker
Königstraße 86
90762 Fürth
Tel.: (0911) 974 – 1785
e-Mail: elke.uebelacker@fuerth.de

Office hours:

Monday, Tuesday and Thursday 9am – 12 pm
An appointment outside our office hours can be made by phone.

© Stadt Fürth Seniorenbüro
1. Auflage Stand 2009
Fotos:
Karen Koehler (Titelbild)
Diakonisches Werk
Seniorenbüro Fürth

English/ Englisch

The greatest cultural success of a country are content elderly people.
(Japanese proverb)

Who we are

→ What is the senior citizens` office?

The senior citizens` office is a neutral institution providing information and advice for elderly people in the city hall of Fürth. We organize cultural and leisure programs as well as meetings for information.

→ Who can take advantage of our services?

- elderly and old people
- their relatives
- friends and neighbours
- professional and voluntary caretakers
- professional experts in consulting old people
- clubs and groups

→ What do we offer?

- overview of all questions about getting old in Fürth
- advice and mediation between citizens and administrative offices
- support and help in finding suitable services in Fürth
- promoting citizen involvement
- information about insurance for nursing care
- organizing events

FAQ – frequently asked questions

Care	What can help to facilitate care at home?
Finances	Where can I apply for financial assistance?
Housing	Where and how can I live when I`m old?
Relieving the burden	How can I combine my job and taking care of my parents?
Leisure and meetings	Where do events for elderly people take place and where can I meet others?

Whatever you want to know, we will take the time to answer your questions. Personal talks are strictly confidential and bound to professional discretion.

What you tell us has no negative consequences for you. Consulting is free of charge.

You are invited to make an appointment with us or to visit us during our office hours.